

The First Congregational Church of Princeton is making it easier for you to do your spring cleaning:

Electronic Recycling and Appliance Day
Saturday, March 13
9:00am-2:00pm

Recycling helps the environment and reduces hazardous waste.

- ▶ All computers, monitors, DVD players, stereos, any electronics: fee - $5 each
- ▶ Televisions and any appliance: washing machines, dryers, stoves, refrigerators, microwaves, exercise equipment, lawn mowers and snow blowers (gas removed): fee - $10 each
- ▶ Large wood console TV: fee - $20
- ▶ Car/truck/tractor batteries and cell phones: Free

Bring items to the church parking lot, and look for a large trailer truck!
All are welcome. Questions? Email j.wood36@yahoo.com

Cash for Your Unwanted Gold!
Saturday, March 20
8:30-10:30am

While you're in the cleaning mood...been wondering what to do with that broken necklace, stray earring or gift from an ex? Bring it to the church on March 20 when Mark Alzapiedi of Watermark Antiques will be here to turn that unwanted gold or precious metal item into cash!

Questions? Call or e-mail the church office: 978-464-2837; churchoffice@firstchurchprinceton.com

Breakfast, too!

Also on March 20 we will be offering a delicious breakfast for just $6.00 served by the men of the church. Come for breakfast even if you don't have any gold to sell—a good time will be had by all!
